

House Resolution No. 1425

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to acknowledge a momentous occasion in the life of one of the Show-Me State's most beloved senior citizens; and

Whereas, Edward Krone, a treasured resident of Higginsville, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of his One Hundredth Birthday on March 29, 2005, with a festive celebration to be held at Meyer Care Center in Higginsville; and

Whereas, Edward Krone came into this world in Lexington on March 29, 1905, and received his education at Lexington High School; and

Whereas, Edward embarked upon a new and exciting chapter in his life when he married his beloved Amanda Bell Krone, and was fortunate enough to find true love once again when he wed Ruth Short Krone; and

Whereas, an avid squirrel hunter, Edward Krone found employment opportunities as a manager at both the Star Store in Lexington and the Higginsville Shoe Factory; and

Whereas, now one hundred years young, Edward Krone faces the beginning of each day with renewed hope and happiness and continues to lead a good life, sharing his experiences and exciting stories of times gone by with his friends at Meyer Care Center where he now resides:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Edward Krone as he proudly celebrates one hundred years of achievement, and in wishing him much peace and prosperity as he continues his journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Edward Krone, as a mark of our esteem for him.
